Sage Steppe Partner Forum

Sharing knowledge around Greater Sage-grouse, sagebrush habitat, and management across the species’ historic range

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Speaker(s)</th>
<th>Topic</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Jan 21</td>
<td>Matt Germino, USGS</td>
<td>Sagebrush responses to shifting climate and fire disturbances: Basic insights for restoration</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Jan 28</td>
<td>Steve Knick, USGS</td>
<td>Maximizing minimums: Mapping basic requirements for greater sage-grouse</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Feb 4</td>
<td>Collin Homer and Cam Aldridge, USGS</td>
<td>Forecasting sagebrush ecosystem components and greater sage-grouse habitat for 2050</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Feb 11</td>
<td>Sonia Hall, Arid Lands Initiative</td>
<td>The Arid Lands Initiative – Shared priorities for conservation at a landscape scale... and What’s next?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Feb 18</td>
<td>Steve Hanser, USGS</td>
<td>USGS Greater Sage-grouse National Research Strategy</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Matt Heller, GNLCC</td>
<td>Sage Steppe Partner Forum Wiki</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Feb 25</td>
<td>Melanie Murphy, Univ. WY</td>
<td>Understanding wetland ephemerality in the context of climate change</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mar 4</td>
<td>Ben Rashford, Univ. WY</td>
<td>Targeting grassland conservation: An estimate of land-use conversion risk in the Northern Great Plains</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mar 11</td>
<td>Vicky Dreitz and Jessie Golding, Univ. MT</td>
<td>Assessing land use practices in sagebrush and grassland ecosystems: multiple migratory bird responses</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Register at Sage Steppe Partner Forum website:
https://sites.google.com/site/forumsagesteppe